The Body Working Together

The past year was filled with celebration! In addition to Landis Homes celebrating 50 years of serving, the Adult Day Services program turned 25 and the Children's Learning Center finished its first decade. Reflecting on this time of celebration, a verse from Ephesians 4 comes to mind. "... from whom the whole body, joined and knitted together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love."

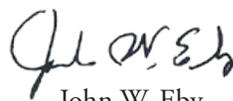

Looking back at the beginnings of Landis Homes, we are grateful for the foresight and careful planning by our founders, supported by Eastern Mennonite Missions (EMM). Connections run deep with more than 100 EMM alumni residing at Landis Homes. In addition, more than 50 retired pastors and spouses from Lancaster Mennonite Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference reside here. These folks, along with those of many faith traditions, have certainly been a part of the "whole body" building up what exists today.

Many of you are playing a part. At the annual Fellowship Day in September, total donated funds to the Caring Fund through 16 benefit auctions, crossed the one million dollar mark. We also see the body growing together through the final stages of the South Campus as we welcome residents to new cottages and hybrid homes. Growing bodies also need to plan ahead and the Landis Homes Board is doing this through the Campus Master Plan, adding a new Learning & Wellness Center along with new apartments. You can read more about this effort on our website landishomes.org.

The "whole body," as referenced in Ephesians, also applies to Landis Communities, the umbrella organization supporting Landis Homes. The reach and size of Landis at Home and Adult Day Services continues to grow with credit going to hardworking team members. At Steeple View Lofts, a vibrant community is forming in walkable downtown Lancaster. At Welsh Mountain Home, we are putting the finishing touches on a wonderful new kitchen and dining room space and have broken ground on Mountain View Terrace apartments for those with very limited financial resources. Landis Communities continues to work with others seeking ways to provide the services and living arrangements for a wide spectrum of people in the region.

We ask for your thoughts and prayers in the year to come as we seek to fulfill our mission of "serving aging adults and their families by honoring and enriching their lives in a community of Christ-like love."

With much gratitude,

John W. Eby
Board Chairperson

Thank You to our 50th Anniversary Premier Partners

Landis Homes' relationship with High Companies, Oregon Dairy and RLPS Architects, spans many years and represents strong partnerships in serving others. Each of these companies helped us celebrate with a special financial contribution, part of which will benefit the Leaman Woods Project.

July 1, 2013 to June 30, 2014

We are deeply grateful to the Friends of the Towel and Basin who contribute to the ministry of serving aging adults and their families by honoring and enriching their lives in a community of Christ-like love. A majority of donors helped support residents who can no longer pay for the full cost of services they need through donations to the Caring and Caring Endowment Funds. Other donors gave donations to provide financial aid to clients in Adult Day Services, to buy medical equipment, to enrich the services to persons with memory loss and to make the Leaman Woods accessible for all, the 50th Anniversary Project. We apologize for any misspellings or omissions from the list. Please contact us with your corrections.

Sanford High, 1983

High Companies

It is suitable that at the portico to the Dogwood Commons where Landis Homes' administrative offices are located, a bronze plaque reads, "Gift of Sanford H. and Erma D. High" highlighting the significant leadership role Sanford and Erma High played in the history of Landis Homes.

In 1961, Sanford High, founder of High Steel Structures, was appointed by Eastern Mennonite Missions to a planning committee charged with the development of a retirement home. In the first meeting, he was elected Vice Chair and because of his broad experience in construction, he was also asked to chair the Building Committee.

From the details of choosing a location, hiring a contractor, reviewing blueprints, and acquiring state approvals, Sanford's leadership, along with Erma's encouragement, proved invaluable. Sanford served as both Vice Chair and Chair of the LH Advisory Committee for 19 years, from 1961 to 1980, while what is now known as the "East Campus" was being built and expanded.

Ed Longenecker, retired CEO of Landis Homes, recounts, "Sanford brought to Landis Homes the same keen focus on innovation, trustworthy leadership and serving well that he brought to his own business. After Sanford died, Erma made her home here for 13 years. In 2008 Erma passed away at the age of 99--it was a privilege to share those years with her."

From their humble start as a Depression-era welding shop whose technological leadership would revolutionize bridge building, to their current status as a vibrant, diverse, and growing organization of business units, the High® companies, now in their second and third generation of leadership, continue to be committed to innovation, industry leadership, environmental stewardship, and meeting needs in their community.

Oregon Dairy

What do a gravel path, 420 gallons of water and Landis Homes' General Store have in common? They are associated with just a few of the neighborly gestures Oregon Dairy bestows on Landis Homes.

The gravel path across the farmland from Landis Homes to the Oregon Dairy Supermarket allows for safe travel for walkers, cyclists, and those using scooters. Oregon Dairy also keeps 420 gallons of water in storage as part of an emergency preparedness plan. And Oregon Dairy assisted Landis Homes in the creation of our General Store. "The Hurst family was very generous in providing both counsel and donating the shelving used in the General Store when it opened almost 20 years ago," according to President/CEO Larry Zook. From its beginning, Oregon Dairy has given a 10 percent discount on groceries purchased for the Store and Gift Shop. Sold at full price, the profit has yielded $309,600 for the Caring Fund!

Being a good neighbor has always been important to the Hurst Family. In 1952, Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Hurst (Mom and Pop) purchased a farm located along Rt. 272. From the first farm market to the current complex that includes a family friendly supermarket, restaurant, gift shoppe and award-winning bakery, the Hurst Family's dream of serving their neighbors and friends remains evident in their actions towards Landis Homes.

Ways to Give

Gifts of Cash

This can be as simple as writing a check to Landis Homes and mailing it to Advancement, Landis Homes, 1001 East Oregon Rd., Lititz, PA 17543

Giving Online

Authorize a charge on a credit card by visiting our web site at www.landishomes.org and follow the link Donate Now.

Charitable Bequest

A gift by Will to Landis Homes is a tax free distribution of the estate or a specific donor amount. The gift can be designated for a particular fund or it can be unrestricted.

Charitable Gift Annuity

A Landis Homes gift annuity is a contractual agreement in which assets are given in exchange for payments for life. It includes tax benefits for the donor.

Life Insurance

A policy can be donated outright or the donor can name Landis Homes as the beneficiary of the policy. Either way there is a tax deduction.

Individual Retirement Account

A donor may name Landis Homes as the beneficiary of their IRA.

Charitable Remainder Trusts

Appreciated assets like real estate or securities can be turned into a cash gift without losing much of the gain to taxes. The gift asset is transferred to the trust and the trust sells the asset. Donors receive a tax deduction and receive income for life based on an agreed-upon rate.

Charitable Lead Trust

This is a unique tool that allows one to use an income producing asset to pay interest to Landis Homes first. It saves taxes and allows the donor to retain the asset principal or pass it on to heirs after a designated period of time.

Call Advancement - 717-509-5490 to explore the giving venue that will serve you and others well.

RLPS Architects is also celebrating a special anniversary this year - their 60th. Founded in 1954 as Haak and Kaufman in Myerstown, PA, the firm initially built its reputation on the design and construction of churches. Those congregations called upon RLPS to design health care facilities for their aging parishioners. The resulting success and rewards from designing housing for the elderly evolved into a specialized practice in senior living with the national reputation enjoyed by RLPS today. The firm currently has a 65-person staff which includes 23 registered architects, 10 interior designers and 17 LEED accredited professionals.

RLPS began working with Landis Homes in the early 90's with the design of Harvest View. The partnership with RLPS provided Landis Homes with the benefit of a local firm backed by national experience focusing on the needs of older adults. The firm's mission to provide cost effective, innovative and meaningful environments that "quietly" support the programs and missions of the organizations they serve fits well with Landis Homes' guiding values.

"Our shared commitment to stewardship of resources has enabled us to provide innovative design solutions that respect natural resources," according to Gregg Scott, Partner. "We're excited that the project received LEED Gold certification, but even more pleased with the long-term value for future generations."

RLPS received many national and regional awards for their designs of Harvest View, The Heritage and Hybrid Homes.
